問5 次の英文を読んで、下の問いに答えよ。

Recently shogi has become popular again. Shogi has been one of my loves for many years. You could find me at a shogi center on weekends in Shinjuku. The game room, usually filled with cigarette smoke and canned-coffee-drinking shogi generals, is my second home.

One Saturday morning, while going to the center, I was stopped by two police officers. The younger officer asked me if I had anything dangerous in my pockets while an older officer, standing behind him, looked like ★A [ア sudden movements イ attack me ウ made any エ if I オ he would] .

I told the officer that there was nothing dangerous in my pockets and allowed him to search them. The younger officer then asked me if he could search my backpack, to which I *consented.

As I turned to take off my backpack, I noticed that there were four more officers behind me. I handed my backpack to the officer to search, and after opening it, he began to laugh.

He showed the contents — shogi books — to the other officers, who also laughed. They gave me back my bag and apologized, saying there had been a *high alert for terrorism. I had nothing to do with terrorists, but I *looked the part with my *camo cargo pants, *combat boots, black *hoody and backpack.

★B [ア angered me イ sometimes ask me ウ *groundless interrogation エ my friends オ if that] , but I feel quite the opposite. I was glad that they were faithful to their duty.

*consented 「同意した」

*high alert 「厳戒態勢」

*looked the part 「そんな風に見えた」

*camo cargo pants 「迷彩柄のカーゴパンツ」

*combat boots 「戦闘靴」

*hoody 「フード付きパーカー」
